FOUR POINTS BY SHERATON BOSTON LOGAN AIRPORT FINALIZES RENOVATIONS

Driftwood Hospitality Management Drives Complete Overhaul of Guestrooms, Lobby and Function Spaces

Boston, Mass. – August 3, 2017 – Four Points by Sheraton Boston Logan Airport today announced the completion of renovations to its 180 guestrooms, lobby and all function spaces. Ideally situated near Boston’s Logan Airport and just five miles from TD Banknorth Garden and Fenway Park, the hotel now offers fully updated guestrooms and bathrooms, an expanded lobby with a large concierge space and redesigned function spaces.

“It’s a very exciting time for this hotel, and for our entire team, and we are eager to share our new look with travelers,” said Michael Buddemeyer, general manager, Four Points by Sheraton Boston Logan Airport. “The redesign here will provide a more welcoming atmosphere for our business and leisure travel guests, with guestrooms fit for maximum comfort and an enlarged lobby to encourage social gatherings. We’re confident that returning and first-time guests alike will find the updates intriguing, and look forward to coming back again in the future.”

Managed by Driftwood Hospitality Management (DHM) since March 2016, Four Points by Sheraton Boston Logan Airport now features five function spaces – the largest at more than 1,700 sq. ft. – an on-site breakfast room seating more than 120 and the new Landing Café, serving Seattle’s Best Coffee® and teas, as well as sandwiches and pastries.

The hotel features a heated indoor pool with an adjacent deck perfect for sunbathing; a multi-functional fitness center with treadmills, free weights, elliptical machines, yoga mats and core fitness yoga balls; and an on-site restaurant, Bisuteki Japanese Steakhouse and Sushi Bar, which offers a hibachi-style dinner and hand-rolled a la carte sushi.

“This hotel sees thousands of guests traveling in and out each year and we felt it was time for a refresh,” said Michael Diaz, chief operating officer for DHM. “We revamped the most important aspects of the hotel. The renovations enhance the look and feel of the property and we believe the changes will position the hotel for long-term success.”

Guests visiting Four Points by Sheraton Boston Logan Airport will enjoy the hotel’s proximity to the subway, allowing travelers quick and easy access to downtown Boston’s shopping and city attractions – including the 50,000 sq. ft. Boston Convention Center. The hotel provides complimentary 24-hour airport shuttle service, as well, and parking is free of charge.
